Backers See Victory In 2nd Roll-call Blitz

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Realistic supporters conceded today they can't put Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts over on the first ballot for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Instead, these strategists concentrated on a second roll-call blitz they believe will deliver the prize in the party convention opening Monday.

Soviets May Sign Treaty

Nikita Hints East Germany May Sign Pact

VIENNA (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev hinted today that the Soviet Union may sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany in September.

"I will tell you a secret," Khrushchev told correspondents in Vienna.

"We have information from West Germany that the West German Federal Parliament may meet in West Berlin in September. This is another provocation."

"We will consider with our friends Otto Grotewohl and Walter Ulbricht whether it would be possible to sign at this time a peace treaty with the German Democratic Republic (East Germany)."

"This," he continued, "would mean that all members of the West German Parliament would have to ask for a visa from the East German government in order to return to West Germany."

Earlier, Khrushchev had emphatically declared that he considers West Berlin to be on the soil of East Germany.

Khrushchev compared Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Hitler again and said the West German leader would be smashed "if he attempted to touch" any country in the Communist bloc.

Khrushchev blasted Adenauer in answer to a question at a news conference in the closing hours of his nine-day state visit to Austria. He apologized to Chancellor Julius Raab for making such remarks on Austrian soil but said it was his "duty not to evade any question."

The United States, West Germany and Italy all have protested to Raab against Khrushchev's attacks on them during his visit.

Enroute to Arkansas

Hitch-hiking Family of 8 Aided by Sedalia Firms

When a man and woman and six children are seen walking down a highway there must be something wrong, Kenneth Schilb thought as he watched a family hitch hiking down Highway 65. He called the attention of Ed Collins to the family and they thought they might have been to Bing's because they were carrying sacks. When the family kept on going, Schilb and Collins, both employees of Mike O'Connor, got in a car and drove about four blocks to overtake them.

It was about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The mother was carrying a baby, the father was carrying a little girl, two other children were walking beside them and a ten year old girl had her small brother by the hand trying to lead him along. The little boy first attracted Kenny — he kept falling down.

When Schilb and Collins stopped the family and talked to them they learned that the father was George Lauck, who had been employed at a packing house in Des Moines, Ia., which was on strike. He had a cousin in Crystal Lake, Ark., who had a farm he wanted him to manage and where he and his family could live, so they had set out for Arkansas in an old car they had. Before he got out of Des Moines, he had parked the car in a no parking zone for a few minutes, and before he got back to it, it had been towed off. He had no money to get it back, so the family had started walking toward Arkansas. They had been picked up a few times along the

Driver, Passenger Die on Motorcycle

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A motorcycle which apparently swerved to avoid a pedestrian rammed a traffic pylon in west St. Louis Thursday night, killing the driver and a passenger.

A witness told police a woman stepped from a curb into the path of the motorcycle.

Killed were Clarence Leroy Miller, 22, of suburban University City, and Charles DeSalvo, 34, of St. Louis, who was riding with Miller.

Mutinous Soldiers Take Over

Congo Is Site Of Rape, Assault By Negro Soldiers

BRAZZAVILLE, Former French Congo (AP)—Thousands of panic-stricken whites, many women and children wearing pajamas, rushed out of the newly independent Republic of Congo today, fearful of assault and rape.

Mutinous Negro soldier were reported for some hours to be in effective control of Leopoldville, capital of the former Belgian Congo. The city lies directly across the Congo River from Brazzaville, which is in autonomous territory soon to receive its independence from France.

The Belgian Embassy in Leopoldville reported partial calm was restored after President Joseph Kasavubu personally addressed the mutinous soldiers.

But it was apparent the situation in the capital remained dangerous with the white population alarmed at reports of assaults and rapes of white women.

AP correspondent Lynn Heinzel, in a dispatch from Leopoldville, said bayonet-wielding soldiers stopped Belgians trying to take the ferry to Brazzaville.

But he reported 3,000 to 4,000 Belgians, mostly women and children, managed to get across before the traffic was halted.

He said some Belgians had been arrested, but that there was no violence.

The flow of refugees started about 2 a. m.

The European settlers of Brazzaville turned out to care for the stream. Most of the women and children had fled their homes in haste. Many told of seeing violence.

With almost no formalities, the refugees were taken in charge by soldiers, police and Europeans and directed toward schools, army camps, the homes of Europeans, and hastily set up shelters. The president of the French Congo, Abbe Fulbert Youlou, named a committee to care for the refugees.

The Republic of Congo got its independence from Belgium June 30. Since that time part of the country has been in turmoil as soldiers demanded more pay and dismissal of all white officers.

Mexico Backing Cuba

Mateos Silent On Statement

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A congressional spokesman for Mexico's ruling political party says the nation is solidly backing the Cuban people against the United States. Senators and deputies gave him rousing cheers.

President Adolfo Lopez Mateos was silent on the statement made by Emilio Sanchez Piedras, chairman of the permanent commission of Congress.

Sources close to the President said they felt the statement represented the view of a spokesman for the legislative branch and not the executive, which is responsible for Mexico's foreign policy under the constitution. But his speech was billed as an explanation of the basic policies of Lopez Mateos' government, and it seemed most unlikely he would have spoken without consulting top government officials.

Sanchez Piedras told a congressional caucus, "It appears that our northern neighbor (the United States) is closing the doors of its friendship and understanding in the face of the yearnings of the Cuban people to live in liberty and economic independence."

"We, the representatives of the people of Mexico, repeat to the Cuban people our same attitude of solidarity," he continued, "and we wish to tell them that we are certain that their right to live in social justice and economic liberty will have to prevail in this continent in the hope of peace and reciprocal friendship."

The congressional leader said he was speaking for the Party of Revolutionary Institutions (PRI), which has an overwhelming majority in Congress and runs almost all phases of Mexican political life. Lopez Mateos is officially the leader of the PRI.

The statement appeared certain to cause concern on the part of the U.S. government. The U.S. Embassy was expected to ask the foreign ministry to what extent it reflected the Mexican government's official policy.

Sanchez Piedras' statement also was certain to find no favor with Mexico's sugar industry, which hopes to supply the United States between 175,000 and 200,000 tons of the 700,000 tons of sugar President Eisenhower lopped off Cuba's quota for 1960. Mexico's sales to the United States now amounts to about 62,000 tons a year.

Pentagon Accepts Bid For WAFB Housing

A bid of $2,264,772 by a California construction company for the building of 504 family units for military personnel at White-man Air Force base near Knob Noster, has been accepted by Pentagon officials.

The announcement of the acceptance of the bid was made by Bruce E. Swartout, president of the Swartout Construction Company of Santa Ana, Calif. The housing will be for families of Strategic Air Force command personnel.

Work on the project will commence as soon as negotiations are completed, Swartout said. Specifications for the construction call for 296 buildings — 208 duplexes and 88 single units. The buildings will contain 378 3-bedroom units and 126 4-bedroom units.

Ike, Herter To Discuss Cuban Crisis

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will discuss the Cuban crisis at a conference here this weekend.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, today announced plans for the conference at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters.

The meeting will be held Sunday or Monday, Hagerty said.

Herter, now on vacation at Manchester, Mass., plans to return to Washington Saturday and will come to Newport from the capital.

Hagerty also announced the President will meet with Dr. George B. Kistiakowsky, his science adviser, and about 16 members of the Science Advisory Committee next Tuesday. Hagerty described that conference as routine.

Hagerty did not elaborate about the forthcoming discussion of the Cuban crisis. He said Eisenhower and Herter also will talk over other international problems.

Makes Appeal For 15-Day Italian Truce

ROME (AP)—Senate President Cesare Merzagora appealed today for a 15-day truce in political rioting and strikes. He said the future of Italy was endangered and his proposal won some early support.

Earlier the government had threatened tougher police action unless the Communists halt the wave of violence which has cost seven lives and injuries to 750.

Giovanni Leone, president of the Chamber of Deputies, announced his support of the truce, and similar indications of approval came from parties of the center and right, and non-Communist unions.

The pro-Communist Socialist party of Pietro Nenni approved the truce, "provided the government afterward does not revert to the same police tactics."

There was no word from the Communists, or the Red-dominated Confederation of Labor.

Merzagora said he was motivated by "the gravity of the situation and the realization that the most sacred values of the constitution had been compromised, and the future of the country endangered."

Premier Fernando Tambroni accused the Reds of using anti-fascism as a front for an attempt to seize power and warned the government would do its "full duty" to restore order.

The Communist-led Confederation of Labor (CGIL) called a nationwide 10-hour general strike this afternoon in protest against "police brutality." Non-Communist unions charged the CGIL with striking for "political motives" and said they would ignore the call.

Building Begins Soon

School Improvement Bonds Sold to St. Louis Company

The Mercantile Trust Co. of St. Louis was the low bidder on the $1,665,000 bond issue sold by the Sedalia Board of Education Thursday night.

The firm offered to buy the bonds at an average interest rate of 3.6911 per cent, and a total net interest cost of $770,686.17. The Stern Bonding Co. of Kansas City was second lowest bidder at 3.699379 per cent average interest, and a net interest cost of $771,366.83.

Under the Mercantile bid, the bonds will bear interest as follows: 3.5 per cent for the $120,000 in bonds maturing from 1961 to 1964; 3.75 for the $410,000 maturing from 1965 through 1970; 3.5 per cent for $195,000, maturing in 1971 through 1972; 3.7 per cent on the $675,000 maturing in 1973 through 1978; and 3.75 on the $265,000 maturing in 1979 through 1980.

The issue consists of 1,665 bonds, each in the denomination of $1,000, dated July 1, 1960, and becoming due on Feb. 1 of each year as follows:

$20,000 in 1961, $40,000 in 1962, $30,000 in 1963 and 1964, $45,000 in 1965, $30,000 in 1966, $30,000 in 1967 and 1968, $85,000 in 1969, $90,000 in 1970, $95,000 in 1971, $100,000 in 1972 and 1973, $105,000 in 1974, $110,000 in 1975, $115,000 in 1976, $120,000 in 1977, $125,000 in 1978, $130,000 in 1979, and $135,000 in 1980.

The $625,000 principal amount of bonds maturing the last five years, according to the above schedule, will be redeemable in inverse numerical order at the option of the Board of Education, at par plus accrued interest, without premium, in 1975, or on any interest payment date thereafter.

The bonds were sold subject to the legal opinion of the law firm of Stinson, Mag, Thomson, McEvers and Fizzell of Kansas City, whose opinion was paid for by the school district. K. B. Fizzell, Jr., was present at the bid opening. Five bids in all were opened, all offering to buy the bond issue at less than four per cent.

The school district will pay for the printing of the bonds, which will be printed in Kansas City by LaRue & Co. at $4.16 per bond. The printing, according to Fizzell, will take about two weeks, then sent to the school district for signatures. Then the bonds will be registered with the Missouri State Auditor and delivered to the buyer.

After the bids were opened and discussed, with Fizzell reading the bids a second time to avoid misunderstanding, Forrest Benner moved to accept the low bid. The move was seconded by Robert Johnson. The vote to accept was unanimous.

The good faith checks of $33,300 accompanying the bids were ordered returned to the unsuccessful bidders. The check from the successful bidder will be held until the transaction is completed.

The bonds are general obligations payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes by the people of Sedalia.

All of the bonds were authorized by a vote of more than two-thirds of the qualified voters in a special election May 3, resulting in a total vote of 4,177 for, and 1,539 against the issue. The bonds have been authorized for building purposes.

After the bid opening Superintendent Thomas J. Norris explained that plans for the construction of the various improvements are progressing according to schedule, and that construction on some of the projects should begin this fall.

Trampoline Center Controversy Is Not Settled, Officials Say

The continued operation of the trampoline center at 1502 Liberty Park is causing a considerable amount of controversy in city government circles, it was learned by the Democrat-Capital today.

The controversy was brought to light during the City Council meeting Tuesday night, when Councilman E. B. Smith voiced his objection to the center's operation at that spot, which is just across the street from Liberty Park. He objected on the grounds that the area has not been zoned for business.

In addition, Smith stated that he understood that the business was operating without the required city license. The Council heard the objection and voted to authorize a committee of three men to investigate. Police Chief Ralph Hamlin, Sanitation Officer Willard Morris and Building Inspector L. W. Dickman were appointed to the committee.

Wednesday morning the committee visited the center, found it was being operated without a license, and ordered the place

The Caravan program is designed to assist congregational youth groups with their total youth program. Devotional services, topic presentations, service projects, and recreational and fellowship sessions will all be given consideration.

The Caravaners have thoroughly prepared themselves for participation in this program. All have completed both a rigorous three months correspondence course, as well as a full week of briefing at Allentown, Pa., before beginning their summer itinerary.

Committee On State, National Affairs Meets

A meeting of the State and National Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Dr. D. R. Robinson is director and William Schien is general chairman, was held at the Chamber office, June 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Tooth and Nail in L. A.

The presidency is a great prize. The competition both for party nomination and election cannot help but be intense on most occasions.

We are now witnessing the mounting pace of that rivalry on the eve of the Democratic convention in Los Angeles.

First, former President Harry Truman and then the forces of Sen. Lyndon Johnson have undertaken by strong measures to block the admitted front-runner, Sen. John Kennedy.

Truman, supporting the candidacy of Sen. Stuart Symington, delivered a two-gun assault on Kennedy. On the one side he declared the convention "rigged" in the Senator's favor. On the other hand, he questioned his fitness for presidency, suggesting he was too young and inexperienced.

Johnson joined in the "rigging" charge and his supporters went a step further by seeking to cast doubt on the state of Kennedy's health.

"Stop" maneuvers directed against the leader are of course the normal and expected thing. As a campaign nears its final stages, his rivals may see no other practical hope open to them.

How effective such efforts may be can depend on a variety of factors.

One is the size of the front-runner's lead. He may in fact be unstoppable. In Kennedy's case the answer on this point is not clear. And may not become so until convention week, when the real extent of his delegate strength is fully disclosed.

Another is the degree to which the charges involved in a "stop"-drive are believed by the delegates and other affected persons.

In this instance, presumably a doctor's word will settle the matter of Kennedy's health one way or another.

On the issue of his experience and maturity, the senator made some strong counter-observations of his own in reply to Truman. The delegates must weigh these points against those made by the former president.

They must exercise the same care in considering the charges of "rigging" the convention.

The delegates know that whether or not National Chairman Paul Butler personally favors Kennedy, he did not himself choose the officers of the convention. This was done by the national committee's arrangements committee.

Thus what the delegates are in fact asked to consider is whether the 14 national committeemen from various widely distributed states did stack the convention's official roster for Kennedy.

In weighing this issue, they must examine the background, the character and the leanings not only of the 14 committee members but of the men they chose to guide the convention.

The delegates' verdict will not now be long in coming.

As we in the nation await it, we can reflect that the battle for a presidential nomination can be not only severe but almost savage.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Kennedy's '56 Memo Haunts Delegates

By DREW PEARSON

LOS ANGELES — During the 1956 Democratic convention in Chicago, Sen. Jack Kennedy's staff circulated a very significant memo to Democratic delegates in an effort to persuade them to nominate Kennedy for vice president instead of Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. In retrospect, Jack got "the best break of his political career" when he lost out to Kefauver for no one could have defeated Eisenhower that year.

However, the memo Kennedy circulated contains information which also affects the outcome of this convention. Actually it raises the Catholic issue, frankly and bluntly, in a way that has never been spelled out in such detail.

Campaigning in West Virginia last spring, Kennedy accused his opponents of injecting the religious issue into the campaign. Real fact is that he himself injected religion into the vice-presidential campaign at Chicago four years before by showing how a Catholic candidate would win an overwhelming number of Catholic voters in key northern cities.

"The voter surveys," said the Kennedy memo distributed privately to 1956 delegates, "all indicate that there is, or can be, such a thing as a 'Catholic vote,' whereby a high proportion of Catholics of all ages, residences, occupations, and economic status vote for a well-known Catholic candidate or a ticket with special Catholic appeal."

"As Lubell has pointed out," the memo continued, referring to political analyst Sam Lubell: "Catholic voting strength is currently at its peak, in view of the maturing offspring of the Italians, Poles, Czechs, and other immigrant elements."

Catholics Vote More
"But the Catholic vote is far more important than its numbers—about one out of every four voters who turn out—because of its concentration in the key states and cities of the north. These are the pivotal states with huge electoral votes. . . . The strength of the Catholic vote within these states is considerably increased by the findings of Gallup, Campbell of the University of Michigan ('The Voter Decides'), and others, that Catholics consistently turn out to vote in greater proportion than non-Catholics."

Then followed a state-by-state analysis of Catholic voting in recent election years.

The smart political leaders don't like to talk publicly about what Senator Kennedy spelled out so bluntly and frankly in his private memo. The only political leader who has done so is chairman Paul Butler who the other day blurted out what a lot of other politicians have been thinking—namely, that if Kennedy is not nominated the Democratic party will lose the Catholic vote.

In fact it's already known that Vice President Nixon is planning to cash in on Catholic resentment, if Kennedy is not nominated, by giving Secretary of Labor Jim Mitchell, a Catholic, the vice-presidential spot on the GOP ticket. One of the Nixon public relations firms in Los Angeles also has a man researching history to show how many Catholics have led European countries—a contrast which it's hoped will show up the Democrats as being anti-Catholic.

For this reason, some Democratic leaders, including the Truman group, feel that Kennedy has put the Democratic party very much on the spot.

Democrats Losing Catholics

How much of a spot they may be on is illustrated by further examination of the Kennedy survey of the strength of Catholic voters.

"Are the Democrats losing the Catholics?" asks the Kennedy study, and then proceeds with this answer: "Every analyst agrees they are, in terms of the national ticket. . . ."

"What may be the clue as to the means of recapturing these votes is provided by Table 4, showing how Democratic Catholic candidates for congressman, senator, and governor (in 1952) ran consistently ahead of their national ticket in a striking example of ticket-splitting on the part of the Catholic voters."

"Some of the 1952 examples shown are particularly instructive had Stevenson run as well as Pastore and Roberts (R.I.), Lausche (Ohio), Kennedy (Mass.), and Mansfield (Mont.), all of whom have won an additional 49 electoral votes. His lags behind O'Brien in Albany and Delaney in New York City were greater than his lag behind Eisenhower in New York state as a whole; and the same is true of his lags behind Rodino in Newark, Zablocki in Milwaukee, Eugene McCarthy in St. Paul, and Melvin Price in East St. Louis."

"Especially revealing of the picture of Catholic voters leaving the Democratic party, except where a Catholic is on the ticket, are the following normally Democratic districts where Catholic voters are a major element: 'Zablocki won in Milwaukee by 29 per cent while Stevenson was losing by 4 per cent."

"O'Brien won in Albany by 7 per cent while Stevenson was losing by 9 per cent."

"Delaney won in New York City by 2 per cent while Stevenson was losing by 13 per cent."

"Addonizio and Rodino won in Newark by 4 per cent and 14 per cent while Stevenson was losing by 4 per cent and 7 per cent."

"Dodd won in Hartford by 8 per cent while Stevenson was losing by 1 per cent."

These are the facts about the so-called "Catholic vote" contained in Kennedy's memo which has some Democratic leaders worried sick. They are caught on the horns of this dilemma: If they nominate Kennedy they will lose a heavy part of the south and border states; if they don't nominate Kennedy they'll lose the big industrial cities of the north.

SARASOTA HERALD - TRIBUNE: Citizen Support.—A climate of citizen support is essential to traffic safety. The American Bar Association is asking judges throughout the country to create such a climate in the interest of greater safety.

What this means, of course, is that safety on the road is largely a personal matter and judges can impress this on the chronic violators by fair, even-handed and strict enforcement.

The bench can set an example, but the job is one for the entire community. We can all help create the climate of citizen support that will save our own families' and our neighbors' lives.

Truman's 'Champ' at Reversing Field

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Truman, a nimble 76, can hop in opposite directions without losing a minute in contradicting himself.

For instance:

A week ago he said he was resigning as a delegate to next week's Democratic convention in Los Angeles. Now he's having second thoughts.

A week ago he implied Sen. John F. Kennedy, 43, and front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination, was too young and inexperienced for the job.

And it was Truman who announced in 1956 that Adlai Stevenson couldn't win the presidency but three days later said he could although, as it turned out, Stevenson couldn't.

Just last Saturday, on a nationwide TV broadcast in a room packed with newsmen, Truman said he had quit as a delegate to the convention because, he implied, it was rigged by Kennedy forces.

A reporter asked him: "What are the conditions, if any, under which you would change your mind and attend the convention?"

The snappy Truman, enjoying the sensation he was causing, shot back: "There are no conditions."

But Thursday he said he had under consideration a request from Missouri's Gov. James T. Blair to attend the convention as a delegate. The governor told Truman "it's your duty to attend."

And Truman, who last Saturday

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

A supper and breakfast 4-H club has been organized at Hughesville with the following officers: President, Sara Lyle Cordry; vice president, Elizabeth Wiley; secretary, Clara Jaeger; song and yell leader, Miriam Nell Rages. Misses Mildred Rages and Elizabeth Durlay are the leaders. The club which adopted the name, "Hughesville Merry Mixers Supper and Breakfast Club," met at the home of Mrs. C. N. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott and two children, Josephine and Junior have returned from a two weeks automobile trip to Colorado, Salt Lake City, Utah, Boise, Idaho, Yellowstone park and Omaha.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Misses Bertha Jakeman, Charlotte Snow, Rebekah Shaffer, Winnie Warren and Myra Graham, accompanied by Robert McLaughlin left in Mr. McLaughlin's car for Ha Ha Tanka where they will enjoy a few days vacation.

Mrs. J. D. Slaton and daughters, Misses Josephine and Ola, of this city, and son, Lon, of Little Rock, who have been touring the western states, are now in Long Beach where they have leased a furnished home and will remain there until September.

Misses Helen Malone, Elizabeth Terry, Edgar Ford, Philip McLaughlin and Willard Dean attended the dance at Pertle Springs Monday evening.

said there were no conditions under which he would reconsider, now said "I haven't made up my mind" about going as a delegate.

In last Saturday's broadcast Truman implied Kennedy was too young and immature for the presidency. In front of the TV camera he gave this unasked advice to Kennedy who has been in Congress 14 years:

"Are you certain that you're quite ready for the country or the country is ready for you in the role of President in January, 1961? I hope someone with the greatest possible maturity and experience would be available at this time."

As more likely candidates than Kennedy — apparently on the ground they were more experienced and mature—Truman suggested among others two Minnesotans: Sen. Eugene McCarthy and Gov. Orville Freeman.

While McCarthy at 44 is only a year older than Kennedy and Freeman at 42 is a year younger, Kennedy has been in Congress two years longer than McCarthy and in important elective office many years longer than Freeman.

It was on Aug. 14, 1956 at the Democratic convention in Chicago that Truman tried to wreck the presidential chances of Adlai Stevenson who was then the front-runner for the nomination.

"I don't think he can win," Truman said.

Stevenson got the nomination. And on Aug. 17 Truman stood before the convention and said:

"Stevenson is a real fighter. And I ought to know. Any man who can take this convention the way he did should be able to take the Republicans next fall."

Trouble was, Truman was right the first time, as President Eisenhower proved by swamping Stevenson in the November election.

Since Truman is just as nimble as ever it wouldn't be surprising if he winds up at the convention this year fighting for the nomination of Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas although he came out for Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri long ago.

May Loose a Few Geniuses

'Hard Look' In Effect In Higher Education Schools

By Robert E. Hennessee
Of Our Washington Bureau

NEW YORK — Students beginning college this fall will not get very much sympathy. About as much, in fact, as they would get in the Army.

The "hard look" is now in full effect in the nation's colleges and universities.

It can be "blamed" (if there is anything wrong with it) on the nation's booming population, and on the Russians, who seem to be having wonderful effects on higher education in the U. S.

While the "hard look" seems certain to improve our higher education generally, it may cut down a lot of young geniuses who would have been "found" a few years back.

A case occurring recently at Columbia University in New York highlights the problem. One of the city's finest high schools gave an A-1 recommendation to Columbia for one of its graduates, who had a phenomenal grasp of mathematics. He was so good, in fact, that officials of the school were unable to determine where he could have obtained some of his knowledge.

The boy was accepted into Columbia General College but before long he was booted out. He was flunking most of his non-science subjects.

Columbia officials told this writer that in prior times they probably would have had "time and opportunity" to have worked with this youngster, who was unwilling to apply himself to anything but what he particularly liked—math.

So this boy, who might have become a great mathematician, probably will end up doing some menial job. The great Dr. Albert Einstein, who flunked even-math in his early schooling, might have been lost but for the fact that the oldsters found time to help Albert find himself.

Columbia University now has 30,000 students and must each year turn away thousands of applicants. The school admits only those it feels "will take the bull by the horns," and those who get in and don't are quickly sent home.

Several Columbia professors with whom we talked said the courses were today harder than ever before and that the students coming in were better equipped for the work than those of only two or three years back.

"The Russians did this for us," one teacher said rather frankly, referring to the new impetus put on education after the Soviets began logging sputniks in the heavens.

"We may lose a few geniuses in the shuffle but our quantity will have more quality to it than it has before. What is happening here is happening in most all our higher institutions. The new student advisor now has to be the student himself — or his parents."

Arson Trial Continuing With Testimony

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP) — The arson trial of Robert C. (Speck) Riggs, former golf pro at the Schifferdecker Municipal Course, continues today with the state presenting witnesses.

Six testified for the State Thursday and nine or 10 more are expected to testify about a fire which destroyed Schifferdecker clubhouse October 23.

Riggs was indicted by a Jasper County grand jury in February.

Some of Thursday's witnesses testified an odor like kerosene was detected in the ruins. Others said the drawers in the desk in Riggs' office were open and $600 was missing.

Cross examination by the defense brought out no container for kerosene or other incendiary material was found and the rear door of the clubhouse apparently was forced open.

The defense is expected to put on five or six witnesses.

Edson In Washington

They're Pals on the Potomac, But Wait Till They See L.A.

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — There is one nice thing about the battle royal for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Before leaving for Los Angeles, all four of the candidates were as palsy walsy as could be in private, even though they threw the harpoons into each other in public.

This was strikingly demonstrated at the intimate little stag party for 60 which former Federal Communications Chairman Paul A. Porter gave for Minnesota Sen. Hubert Humphrey.

Object of the affair was to raise enough money so Humphrey could run for re-election without having to mortgage his home. After the West Virginia debacle, Porter had promised he would "do anything he could to help." This was it.

Senators Lyndon Johnson, Jack Kennedy, and Stuart Symington all came. And so did Adlai Stevenson.

They all got along together fine. They all contributed generously to the Humphrey campaign chest. They all had one other thing in common besides being Democratic presidential hopefuls. They all like Hubert Humphrey, in spite of the fact that he was low man on the candidates' totem pole.

The only ground rules for the party were that no reporters were admitted and no one present was permitted to discuss the Los Angeles convention.

Host Porter says he hasn't added up how much was pledged to the Humphrey cause, because he has been afraid somebody might ask him and he didn't want to know, just yet. But the amount ran well into four figures—though not five.

When Porter saw Stevenson in Chicago a week or so before and asked him to come to the party, Stevenson replied that if he came down and "shook the tambourine" for Hubert, "It might be misconstrued."

"I hope it is," Porter replied. Stevenson came anyway.

In making his few remarks that went along with his pledge to the Humphrey cause, Stevenson said: "We hope this means that Hubert will be reasonably freed from expenses incident to the interment of his dead horse."

There were about 50 other prominent Democrats present. And they all came away with the illusion at least that they had rubbed shoulders with the next president.

There had been some dirty cracks made about this party being held so that Humphrey could auction off his 63½ convention delegates to the highest bidder.

Porter assured the candidates this was not the case. For if it had been, he said the price would have been higher and the money raised would have been far greater.

Porter also assured his guests that his interest in raising money for Humphrey was not a matter of gratitude, either. He told this story to prove it:

When Humphrey first came to Washington in 1948, he couldn't get into his Senate office because Joe Ball, the Republican he had defeated, wouldn't move out.

The Arnold, Fortas and Porter law firm allowed Humphrey to occupy one of their rooms. There he used the office stenographic pool, ran up the phone bills, helped himself to the firm's coffee and pantry facilities.

Shortly after Humphrey did get into his own office, Paul Porter had a client with an action against the government. It took a private bill in Congress to settle the matter. But when it came to the Senate floor, Humphrey voted against it.

In spite of this, a dozen years later, Porter arranged his party anyway, because everyone likes Hubert.

Quoting his favorite purple passage obituary writer in the Carlisle, Ky., Democrat — Porter's home state—he remarked that the man was "Universally esteemed and more than universally loved."

At the close of the affair, Porter summed it up with the words of Mark Twain who, on emerging from the marshlands of South Carolina to the coast, took one look at the Atlantic Ocean and observed, "This is a success, ain't it?"

matter of FACT

The hot Egyptian air was heavy with perfume at ancient banquets. Guests of both sexes were presented with bullet-shaped cones of perfume fat which they'd anchor on their heads. The heat of the day and of the guest's body would melt the fat, bathing him in a greasy fragrance. The minute one cone ran out, a slave was at hand with a replacement. So throughout the party, guests were really "dripping" with sweet scents.

Salt Lake City Beauty Wins Miss USA Title

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A raven-haired beauty reigns as Miss USA, and matches her perfect figure and charm against 42 girls from all over the world tonight in semifinals for the Miss Universe title.

Linda Bement, an 18-year-old Mormon girl from Salt Lake City, Utah Thursday night won over 42 American contenders for Miss USA.

"She has been grooming herself since she was 13," beamed her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bement.

"I wanted to make my parents proud," countered Linda. "They were the instigators of this."

Just a month out of high school and an only child, Linda was one of the youngest girls competing. But her poise, her gorgeous face and figure captured the fancy of the judges as it did a crowd of 6,000 spectators in Miami Beach Convention Hall.

The crowd gave her the biggest applause of any of the 15 semifinalists — and again of the five finalists as the field was narrowed.

She stood above the others in the evening gown judging, wearing a Grecian goddess style white gown, slit up the front to the knee. And she was a standout in the bathing suit judging with her figure measuring 37 bust, 23 waist and 36 hips.

Her self-styled black hair was striking in a hairdo she described as sort of a French twist.

New York's entry, Mary Rodres of Port Jefferson, was named first runnerup.

In order, behind her came, Margaret Jo Gordon of Birmingham, Ala.; Lyndia Ann Tarlton of Wingate, N. C.; and Nancy Wakefield of Winter Haven, Fla.

Docking Doesn't Know Who His Delegates Want

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Gov. George Docking said Thursday night he doesn't know what candidate the 42 Kansas delegates will support for the presidential nomination at the Democratic National Convention.

The Kansas governor and his wife, Don Hewitt, a Kansas City, Kan., delegate, and Gene Sullivan, executive secretary to the governor, boarded a train for Los Angeles.

Docking said the Kansas delegates will vote under the unit rule and it will be up to them to make the decision at a caucus scheduled Monday afternoon.

"I will serve as chairman of the delegation but I am not in a position to say which way it will go," he said.

"There is no question Sen. Kennedy has a lot of support among convention delegates. Still, there are others who seem to have considerable support. It's just impossible to tell at this stage where the nomination will go."

Demos Wage War on Ticket Counterfeits

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Democratic convention managers are taking elaborate precautions to prevent counterfeiting of credentials to next week's nominating sessions.

J. Leonard Reinsch, executive director of the convention, outlined the security plans today and acknowledged that part of the program involves a last minute distribution of badges and tickets to give counterfeiter less time to practice their art.

At the 1952 Democratic convention, realistic-looking ribbon badges were hawked on the streets outside Chicago's International Amphitheatre. The result was a traffic jam on the convention floor.

Security measures were tightened in 1956 and have been made more elaborate this year.

For one thing, the laminated plastic badges which will admit delegates, convention workers and newsmen to the floor will be specially treated so secret identifying marks can be spotted under special lights.

The badges themselves will be numbered so "hot" badges that are lost or stolen can be readily identified by doorkeepers and police.

There will be two ways of wearing the badges — clipped to a breast pocket or hung on a cord around the neck.

Convention officials also have delayed passing out spectator tickets lest someone try to duplicate them. The design of the tickets has been made more intricate than for past conventions.

Delegates and alternates to the convention also will be given ribbon badges of the type that caused trouble eight years ago. This will be done to meet a demand for some fancy convention souvenirs.

There will be several thousand spectator seats available in the Sports Arena — who gets them and how is yet to be announced — but to be sure every seat is taken there will be a large overprinting. So these seats will be on a first-come basis.

At previous conventions, many — sometimes hundreds — of ticket holders failed to show up. These gaping holes in the audience looked worse on the TV screens than junior's two missing front teeth.

Jockey Is Arrested

HICKSVILLE, N. Y. (AP) — Hedley Woodhouse, one of the nation's best known jockeys, was arrested on a public intoxication charge Thursday night after he allegedly created a disturbance and tried to avert arrest.

His wife posted $500 bail at 4:30 a.m. today and got him out of jail.

Woodhouse, 40, was refused a drink at a bar because the bartender figured he already had enough.

No objections to amusements, as such, but that he does object to having a business established in a single-dwelling residential zone.

S. J. Timbrious, chairman of the Sedalia Planning and Zoning Commission, verified the fact that the area is in fact a single-dwelling zone, and that for it to be changed to a business zone would require a public hearing after 15 days.

After such a hearing, and if the zoning commission approved rezoning the area for business, the City Council might pass an ordinance at its next meeting to rezone the area for business.

No such hearing is planned, Timbrious said Friday. Dickman, as the authority for issuing building permits, said no permit has been issued for the operation of a business in the disputed area. He confirmed the requirements outlined by Timbrious.

Dickman further pointed out that there is no distinction between "temporary" and "permanent" businesses. Any type of business, even a circus or carnival, would be operating illegally if it was in a residential zone. Dickman stated. Even though all other factors were favorable, the business would still have to procure a city license.

As it stands today, the center is operating under the unwritten agreement until some action is taken, one way or another.

Conflict-of-Interest Trial Has Hung Jury

NEW YORK (AP) — The conflict-of-interest trial of Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack has ended in a deadlocked jury. Whether the state will seek a retrial was not immediately announced.

The jury had deliberated 18 hours and 45 minutes before announcing it could not agree. The panel voted 8-4 for conviction on two of the four charges.

Jack, 52, the nation's highest ranking Negro municipal official, would not comment on the outcome.

Jack was accused of violating the city charter by accepting a $4,400 apartment remodeling job from real estate operator Sidney J. Ungar at a time when Ungar was a business client of the city. He also was charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice by concocting a fictitious story that the payment was actually made by his wife, Almira, from her household allowance.

He gave the $10 left to the mother and told her to spend it as she needed it, and then came back to Sedalia.

Now, Schib, the men at Mike O'Connors and all the people who played a part in helping the family are hoping they have reached their destination at Harrison, Ark., where they will be met by Lauck's cousin, and taken to the farm. There they will have plenty of room to play and plenty to eat.

Indians Would Like To Forget Pierce

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's getting so everyone apparently has forgotten Billy Pierce except the Cleveland Indians, who wish they could.

The Chicago White Sox southpaw was overlooked as a starting pitcher in last fall's World Series and passed over by his own manager, Al Lopez, when the American League's All-Star staff was named. But he's been a one-man roadblock to Indian pennant hopes.

He beat the second place Indians for the fifth straight time in a 9-3 decision Thursday night that gave the White Sox a sweep of a two-game series at Cleveland.

This one dropped Cleveland three games behind the first place New York Yankees who beat the Orioles 6-3.

Detroit defeated Kansas City 6-3, and Washington split a two-night pair at Boston. The Senators won 6-5, then lost 4-2.

In the National League, Pittsburgh put away its 11th last-inning victory with a 3-2 decision at Cincinnati that retained a 5½-game lead. Second place Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 2-0 behind Warren Spahn's five-hitter. St. Louis tagged third place San Francisco 7-3, fourth place Los Angeles made it four in a row with a 7-1 job on the Chicago Cubs.

Pierce (7-4) gave up seven hits, one a homer by Jim Piersall, while winning his fourth decision in the last six.

Al Smith, who was 4-for-4, and Gene Freese each homered and drove in three runs for the White Sox in a 13-hit attack. Freese's shot, with two on, came in a winning five-run third off Jim Perry (9-4), who has lost only two of his last 10 decisions.

A two-run seventh inning, triggered by Clete Boyer's homer and capped by Tony Kubek's sacrifice fly, brought the Yankees from behind against loser Milt Pappas (7-6). Winner Duke Maas (1-1) and Bobby Shantz shut out the Birds on four hits over the last five innings in relief of Bob Turley.

The Tigers scored five in the third inning climaxed by Eddie Yost's two-run single, and sent Don Larsen (0-5) to his 11th straight loss. Left-hander Don Mossi (6-6) was the winner.

The Senators made it four in a row in the opener in a two-run seventh. Camilo Pascual (8-5) won it. Frank Sullivan (3-10) was the loser.

Billy Muffett (1-1), making only his seventh start in the majors and first since 1958, pitched a four-hitter for the Red Sox in the nightcap for his first AL victory. Willie Tasby, who scored the first two runs, beat Bill Fischer (3-5) with a two-run single in the fourth.

Sedalia Crushes Lexington

Game Is Called In 6th Because Of Plate Dispute

The Sedalia Chiefs crushed Lexington Thursday night, 12-2, in a game called in the sixth inning as a result of a dispute at the plate. In the top of the sixth a Lexington hitter got mad at a couple of the umpire's calls. He was finally told to leave the game, and this brought on a big ruckus from the Lexington dug-out. The visitors' manager came out, talked to the umpire, and decided to take his boys home early. The game was not protested. Lexington was ten runs behind when the incident occurred.

Evert Smith and Bob Howard divided the pitching chores for the Chiefs. Smith pitched the first three innings and did not allow a man to reach base. He struck out six Howard came on in the bottom half of the fourth and gave up two hits. Only one of the two runs scored against him was earned. Howard fanned four men in the three innings he worked. Due to the sixth inning incident Smith was given the win.

Sedalia will journey to Marshall Sunday afternoon to play at 2:30. Either Jim Coons or Roger Gates will be the starting pitcher. Marshall is currently in second place in the Western Division League with a 6-1 record. The Chiefs will be seeking their first win against the host team, having dropped two to Marshall this year. The Chiefs will leave from Third and Osage at 1 p.m. Sunday.

Names Floyd 'Fighter Of The Month'

NEW YORK (AP) — To nobody's surprise, Floyd Patterson was named "fighter of the month" by Ring Magazine in its semimonthly ratings announced today.

The heavyweight champion's unparalleled feat of regaining the title made him a natural for the nomination. Ingemar Johansson, dethroned by Patterson, was dropped to the No. 4 spot among the challengers, with Sonny Liston in the No. 1 spot, Zora Folley second and Eddie Machen third.

Carl (Bobo) Oslen of Portland, Ore., former middleweight champion, moved into the top 10 in the light heavyweight ranks by up setting Mike Holt of South Africa. Bobo is ranked No. 7, and Holt dropped from third to sixth. Willie Pastrano of Miami went from No. 8 to No. 4, and Chic Calderwood of Scotland from No. 4 to No. 3.

NBA World Champion Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, still is rated the No. 1 challenger in the middleweight class as a result of his second decisive victory over Carmen Basilio. Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass. is recognized by Ring as the titleholder. Pender is recognized by New York, Massachusetts and the European federation.

Terry Downes of England, who looms as the next opponent of Pender, is ranked 10th in the middleweight class, replacing Tiger Jones.

Benny Paret took over the welterweight crown through his victory over Don Jordan, the defeat dropping Jordan to third place behind challengers Luis Rodriguez of Cuba and Frederico Thompson of Argentina.

England's only silk farm is at Lullingstone Castle in Kent.

INDIANS' 33RD STOLEN BASE—Cleveland's Vic Power slides into second with a stolen base in a game at Cleveland with the Chicago White Sox. Nellie Fox (2) jumps for the high throw that was off target and shortstop Luis Aparicio races to back him up. Power's theft was the 33rd stolen base for the Indians, matching their 1959 total. The White Sox won 7-5. (AP Wire-photo.)

Bucs Retain Lead

LA Looks Good; Long Road Ahead

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers have begun to look like world champions again, but they still have a long way to go to catch Pittsburgh's Pirates in the National League race.

The Dodgers, who trail by 8½ games, moved within a half-game of third place San Francisco by whipping Chicago's Cubs 7 to 1 Thursday night for their ninth victory in 11 games.

But the Pirates put away their fourth consecutive success when Bob Skinner cracked a two-out two-on double in the ninth inning that beat Cincinnati 3-2. It was Pittsburgh's 11th last-inning victory.

League Plays Final Game In Havana

MONTREAL (AP) — The International Baseball League has played its last game in Havana, at least for 1960.

Frank Shaughnessy, president of the triple A league, announced Thursday night that the Havana franchise will be moved within a few days to "protect our players."

Negotiations are under way for the Sugar Kings to play their remaining between 35 and 40 home games in Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium, Cincinnati and possibly other cities.

The Sugar Kings have a working agreement with the Cincinnati Reds of the National League. Havana's next "home" game is July 15 against Columbus.

"We have to protect our players and the only way to do it is to get them out of there," Shaughnessy said. "The league decided last winter that if a situation arose in which there was any danger to our personnel I was to move the franchise."

Shortly before Shaughnessy confirmed the reports of the possible transfer of the Havana franchise, Sugar King owner Bobby Maduro said in Havana:

"I am not moving the franchise and I am not leaving Cuba. If the other teams feel they have not had more than ample demonstrations of friendliness and courteous hospitality of the Cuban people, they can go ahead and do what they want."

Shaughnessy said he might be able to announce today the sites of the remainder of Havana's home games.

All-Star Game At KC Monday; Seats Sold Out

KANSAS CITY (AP) — This city will play host Monday to baseball's all star game amid a growing battle to keep its place in the big leagues.

The first encounter of baseball's big two-game mid-season show will be played in a stadium where Kansas City's fandom has proved its mettle by pouring through the turnstiles five million strong to watch the Athletics in the five full seasons since the club was moved in 1955 from Philadelphia.

Because the majority stockholder, Arnold Johnson of Chicago, died in March, the club will be sold to the highest bidder. Whether the Athletics, floundering in seventh place in the American League, remain depends on whether the purchaser is a Kansas City syndicate or one outside the city, like Johnson's, willing to operate in Municipal Stadium.

This will be the backdrop for 1 p. m. when the National League's Willie Mays steps to the plate to face the American League hurler, perhaps Kansas City's own Bud Daley, a southpaw who has won 12 games and might conceivably win another before Monday.

The stadium's slightly less than 31,000 grandstand seats will be filled. There are no bleachers in the park that was hurriedly built in the winter of 1954-55, on the site of the old American Assn. club at 22nd and Brooklyn Ave. Twice that many tickets could have been sold and many of Kansas City's faithful will watch the game on television.

The playing field, which the players say is the best in the American League, is somewhat confining in the left field and left center areas. A medium power drive can clear the 20-foot fence for a home run. The distance down the left field line is 330 feet but the barrier cuts sharply across to center, making it vulnerable not only to right handed power hitters but even line drive artists such as Dick Groat, the Pirate shortstop, or Harvey Kuenn, the American League's 1959 batting king now with Cleveland.

The right field line is 353 feet and the fence is at 387 in right center. A home run drive to the dead center bull pen area must carry 420 feet and clear a 14-foot fence.

Several National Leaguers will be getting their first look at the Kansas City park. American League left fielders are more accustomed to playing the carom shots off the fence and the six feet of wire netting above it.

For Athletics fans, Daley is the only bright light in an otherwise disappointing season. The left-hander has lost only four games although he has been hit harder than usual in recent starts. The club has no other steady hurler and the hitting has been anemic.

Roger Maris' winter trade with New York backfired and left the fans disgruntled. Infield troubles necessitated letting Bob Cerv, broken-jawed home run hero of two years ago, go to the Yankees for Andy Carey, a fine fielding third baseman.

Kansas Citians for the most part are optimistic they can keep the Athletics and eventually see a club that will play in another big baseball show—the World Series.

They already have pledged $2,000,000 in earnest money toward the purchase of the A's. There are plenty more small investors who will swell that amount in bidding against interests in Dallas, Houston, Minneapolis and other cities who want the club.

Many observers throughout the American League would not be surprised if Kansas City succeeds. The great outpouring of support for a club that never has finished higher than sixth has convinced them.

New Policy, TV Lark 1-2 Choice Today

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — New Policy and T. V. Lark rate as the one-two choice today as a field of nine shaped up for the $100,000 added Hollywood Derby Saturday.

Candidates deemed likely to enter were Nagea, Prince Blessed, Henrihan, Tempestuous, Blank Check, First Balcony, Top Caliber, New Policy and T. V. Lark.

The derby is run at a mile and one-quarter.

New Policy merits his favorite's role, however, if for no other reason that his 1.46 3-5 track record time for a mile and one-eighth in the recent Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park.

New Policy and T. V. Lark, the latter with Bill Harmatz in the saddle, will carry 122 pounds.

A's Home After Tough Road Trip

The Athletics are back in Kansas City after losing 7 of 9 games on the road — the latest a 6-3 decision at Detroit Thursday night. Larry Jackson, meanwhile, won his 10th game as St. Louis beat San Francisco 7-3 at Candlestick Park.

Kansas City now has a 10-27 record out of town.

Detroit scored five of its runs in the third inning, aided by five walks, four of them by Don Larsen who has yet to win or finish a game this year. He has lost five.

The A's scored twice in the fifth against Don Mossi on singles by Pete Daley, Lou Klimchuck and Hank Bauer. Bauer also hit a home run in the eighth. Mossi's victory was his first this season over Kansas City and squared his record at 6-6.

In San Francisco, Stan Musial's bases-loaded single in the third scored Jackson and Joe Cunningham. Johnny Antonelli relieved Giant starter Sam Jones, and Bill White scored on an infield out. Jones was charged with five runs. The loss gave him a 10-8 record, the same as Jackson's.

Pat Lawford Bears Second Famous Name

By BOB THOMAS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Leave it to California to provide a touch of glamour amid the 4,518 delegates and alternates to the Democratic National Convention.

One of the members of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's delegation bears two famous names. In the political crowd, she's Patricia Kennedy. To Hollywood, she's Mrs. Peter Lawford.

With typical Kennedy smoothness, she has managed to juggle the twin careers of being sister

We're having a caucus on Sunday, and I'll be there.
"The delegation is pledged to vote for Governor Brown on the first ballot. After that, I'll be able to vote for Jack. I don't know how the others will vote, but I think Jack should do very well in California. I think he will get a majority of the votes."
Her brother, known to the electorate as Sen. John F. Kennedy, is due to arrive Saturday and she expects to see a great deal of him. But no family parties are planned—"I expect we'll all be pretty busy."
Politics is a family passion with the Kennedys and Pat admitted she enjoys it as much as anyone.

Long-comic Disease Is Actually a Distinction

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—One out of every 100 Americans has a distinction.

—despite his throbs of gout—did so much to win American freedom and establish our national unity.

This disease is gout, a malady which has had a far more important impact on our country than, say, those twin ailments of the advertising world — halitosis and athlete's foot.

Those who laugh at gout do so in the belief that it is a heavenly penalty for high living. The truth is that gout is an inheritable metabolic disorder, a form of arthritis that afflicts more suspected sinners than known saints only because at any one time the world usually holds many sinners, few saints.

Those who laugh at gout might not be here at all except for the dreaming boldness of a gout sufferer — Christopher Columbus — discovered America.

The long and honorable history of gout is recalled in the current issue of "Geriatrics" by two physicians, L. Maxwell Lockie and Richard G. Cooper, both of Buffalo, N.Y.

One was the brilliant English orator, William Pitt. It is said that only an attack of gout prevented him from stopping passage of the Stamp Act, a measure that speeded the American Revolution.

Gout, which is manifested by painful deposits in the joints and body cartilage and accompanied by a high uric acid content in the blood, is one of the oldest diseases known to man.

The other was Benjamin Franklin, whose diplomatic genius—despite his throbs of gout—did so much to win American freedom and establish our national unity.

It was accurately described by Hippocrates, the "father of medicine," and others as early as the 5th century, B.C. As early as the 17th century Thomas Sydenham, "the English Hippocrates," classified gout as a form of arthritis and gave his view that victims "have received ill seeds of the disease from their parents by inheritance."

The general image of a man with the gout was that of a fat red-faced English lord lying in bed with a heavily bandaged foot propped up on a pillow, a wretch who screamed in agony if even still laughs at gout proves he is a fly landed on the bandage.

For a couple of centuries thousands of high-minded men suffered the tortures of gout in secret and silence rather than admit they had a malady others thought comic.

Today, say Drs. Lockie and Cooper, gout is the one form of arthritis that can be easily managed by medicine and diet.

So if you want to become the first man in your neighborhood with a distinctive disease, never mind bragging about your ulcer. Ulcers are commonplace. Gout is the thing. Gout is becoming fashionable as well as respectable.

The guy with gout may also be a genius in his genes; the guy who

To Demo Platform Drafters

Meany Predicts Jobless Figures Will Show Jump

LOS ANGELES (AP)—AFL-CIO President George Meany predicted to Democratic convention platform drafters today that government unemployment figures will show a "frightening" jump of nearly one million during June.

This increase, he said, would be the largest May to June jump in the jobless total since end of World War II.

Urging the government policies keyed to stimulate greater economic growth, Meany said the country is on the road to stagnation, not to growth.

Other sources indicated they expect the jobless figure will jump from about 3½ million to about 4½ million and the unemployment rate to soar to about 5½ per cent of the nation's work force.

Meany's criticism of present economic conditions was made in testimony for a convention resolution committee which has indicated it will endorse a plank promising to stimulate the economy.

In similar testimony before the committee Thursday Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers said economic policies of the Eisenhower administration have slowed industrial growth to a point where the nation's future is threatened by a more rapid Communist expansion in this area.

Meany's unemployment forecast and warnings of possible further downturns took platform attention for the time being from a potentially explosive tussle over a civil rights plank.

A parade of nearly 40 witnesses appeared before the drafters Thursday to demand that the party pledge itself to use of full powers of the federal government—legislative and executive as well as the courts—to eliminate racial discrimination in schools, employment, housing and other fields of life.

This demand brought a grave but calm warning from Sen. Spessard L. Holland of Florida that a plank of this nature would drive many Southerners from the party. He appealed for moderation, saying the South would never accept coercion or compulsion.

Closely associated with the civil rights controversy were sharp criticisms directed at rules of the Senate permitting filibusters and of the House allowing that body's rules committee to stall legislation.

A move was expected within the committee to write into the platform a declaration that no member of the party should accept a post of responsibility in Congress without being willing to help carry out the platform pledges. But there was doubt such a move would succeed.

In another facet of the economic situation, President James G. Patton of the National Farmers Union called for a farm plank pledging to boost agricultural prices and income. He recommended a return to wartime and postwar government farm price supports and crop controls.

Patton's program—which already had been written into an advisory group's tentative draft of the Democratic farm plank—is in sharp contrast to that of the Eisenhower administration. The latter has worked toward lower supports and fewer controls.

The Farmers Union program also would use controversial government payments to help boost farm income. This plan received support from the Chicago Board of Trade. Board President Robert C. Liebenow told committee use of payments could reduce the cost of farm programs to taxpayers.

Before winding up public hearings today on the platform, the committee arranged to hear reports on nine regional hearings held in various parts of the country during the spring and early summer.

These reports were to be given by such party leaders as Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, Charles F. Brannan, former New York Gov. W. Averell Harriman, Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough of Texas, Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City, Senator Frank Moss of Utah, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California, Sen. Philip A. Hart of Michigan and former Gov. George Leader of Pennsylvania.

President David J. McDonald of the United Steel Workers Union joined Meany in expressing concern over unemployment.

"The steel industry," McDonald said, "is in a depression. Nearly half of its capacity lies dormant. It is expected to fall even more. It is rightfully said that as steel goes, so goes the nation. It is indeed a barometer of our entire economy."

Both Meany and McDonald called for economic stimulation by federal programs providing financial aid for school, highway and housing construction as well as economic aid for depressed areas.

Secretary of State Robert W. Crawford conducted the hearing in the absence of Gov. James T. Blair. He granted the 10-day extension at the request of the defense attorneys, Vernie Crandall and Charles Cook of Carthage, Mo., to permit filing of briefs.

The Brackett brothers were truckers for the Fullerton Oil Co. of Sarcosie, Mo. They were arrested in Carthage June 6.

Dixie Outpost In Biltmore Is Hospitable

LOS ANGELES (AP)—You can almost smell magnolias and hear the strains of "Dixie" at a tiny Confederate outpost on the Biltmore Hotel's third floor.

It's called the Southern Hospitality Room. And the place—open to all Democratic convention delegates and visitors—simply swells with Southern hospitality.

It's so hospitable that even a Yankee can feel like Robert E. Lee when he accepts a cool drink from some of the Old South's fairest flowers. A spacious closet is well stocked with any refreshment a visitor's little ol' heart might desire.

In an adjoining room, the Omega Trio from Nashville, Tenn., holds forth with jump tunes and bouncy folk songs.

Who's paying for it all? Charles Shepherd, who describes himself as an Atlanta, Ga., real estate man, says he and a few friends chipped in to assure fellow Southerners of a home away from home. Strictly non-political, he adds.

Ask him about rumors that the place is a Southern front for Sen. John F. Kennedy and Charles Shepherd will tell you all about Georgia Tech's football team. Kennedy's campaign headquarters staff publicly denies connection with or knowledge of the place.

One of the celebrants in the suite is James W. (Taxi) Smith, former mayor of Albany, Ga. Taxi, as he's known to his friends, says he's for Kennedy and consequently quit the Georgia delegation which is voting unanimously for Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Ask him about politics, and Taxi will tell you how he got his nickname. It seems he was a cross-country runner for Georgia Tech many years ago. In a marathon race with the rival University of Georgia, Taxi was faltering until he spotted a taxi. He finished first, thanks to a friendly cab driver, and went on to become mayor of Albany. Or so the story goes.

Then there's Henry L. (Country) Johnston, of Valdosta, Ga., a former football player at Georgia during the late 30's and early 40's. Country says he's a Kennedy man, too, and cites his Baptist faith as proof that Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, can win in the South's Protestant Bible Belt.

What's he doing here? "Let me tell you about my dog that eats other dogs, answers Country. "He's only 10 inches high but 10 feet long. He's really an alligator from the Okefenokee swamps—but I cut off his tail and painted him yellow—and he makes a fine hound dog."

So and so goes. The visitor leaves, hardly able to hear the tinkling of glasses because of the tingling confusion in his head.

Adams Assumes Post; Council Gripes Over

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Robert T. Adams, whose appointment to the Kansas City Human Relations Commission raised opposition in the City Council, got the job Thursday.

Adams was sworn in after Mayor H. Roe Bartle gave his authorization. Adams was opposed by City Council members because he belonged to several pacifist organizations.

Adams arrived Monday from Buffalo, N. Y. He spent three days sitting in the commission's office waiting for formal installation.

On his application for the position, Adams said he was a member of the National Committee for Non-Violent Action and the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy.

Mayor Bartle said Adams indicated he would not affiliate in Kansas City with some of the organizations in which he held membership previously.

Youth Held On 2 Counts Of Rape Try

PINEVILLE, Mo. (AP)—Carmen Puryear, 20-year-old former convict, is held in the McDonald County jail on two counts of attempted rape, two charges of kidnapping and two charges of grand larceny.

A juvenile also was arrested and turned over to juvenile authorities in connection with the attack Saturday night near Noel, Mo.

Officers said Puryear and the juvenile came upon a stalled car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Chenoweth of Cassville, Mo.

Puryear offered to push the Rogers car. It failed to start and he offered to take Chenoweth and Rogers to Lanagan, Mo., to seek a mechanic.

Officers said Puryear left Chenoweth and Rogers in Lanagan, returned to the stalled car and told the women their husbands were waiting for him to drive them to Lanagan.

Authorities said Puryear turned off on a country road and attacked the women.

Mrs. Rogers broke away and ran barefoot to U. S. 71, where she got a ride to Lanagan and called the sheriff. Mrs. Chenoweth also fled and hid in the woods.

Puryear was arrested at his home in Shanghai Hollow about four miles northwest of Noel. The juvenile was picked up at the home of his parents near Anderson, Mo.

Preliminary hearing for Puryear was set for July 25. He was released last Friday from the Missouri penitentiary, where he was serving a term as a parole violator. He was sentenced originally on burglary charges.

Ginger Falls During Bike Scene in 'Annie'

WARWICK, R.I. (AP)—Movie star Ginger Rogers fell into the orchestra pit from a bicycle during a performance of "Annie Get Your Gun" at the Warwick Musical Theatre Thursday night. She was unhurt.

She rode the cycle off the circular stage during the first act. "I'm all right folks," she called to the audience and returned to the stage.

Apparently unsettled by the mishap, Miss Rogers almost fell from a high pedestal in the second act.

The U. S. inland waterways system carries nearly twice the amount of bulk freight moved on the Great Lakes.

New Sabreliner Jet Can Do Double Duty

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP)—A new jet capable of serving as a military trainer and a commercial transport has passed its first test flight.

The T39 Sabreliner can carry a crew of two and four passengers at 500 miles an hour, North American Aviation, Inc., its builder, said Thursday.

The Air Force has ordered 42 of the planes, the first to be delivered in September.

Rehabilitation Centers May Be In St. Louis, KC

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Rehabilitation centers for about-to-be-released convicts may be set up in St. Louis and Kansas City.

The plan was described Thursday to the St. Louis Kiwanis Club by Col. James D. Carter, director of the Missouri Dept. of Corrections.

Carter said the specially selected prisoners chosen for the proposed centers would spend the last 30 days of their terms in them and would be free during the day to look for work.

At the center, such details of securing drivers licenses, social security cards and other items necessary to living outside prison would be handled.

They said if a man is to be rehabilitated it is paramount that he quickly obtain a job as the state furnishes him only $25 and a new suit of clothes.

Jean Simmons Suing Granger for Divorce

NOGALES, Ariz. (AP)—Actress Jean Simmons has filed for a divorce from actor Stewart Granger, apparently ending what was thought to be another of Hollywood's perfect marriages.

Granger was not expected to contest the action, filed Thursday in Santa Cruz County Superior Court. A hearing is expected in mid-August.

Miss Simmons seeks custody of their daughter, Tracy, 3½. The complaint, which charges Granger with cruelty, said property rights had been settled.

Mystery Off To Bad Start On CBS-TV

By BERNARD GAVZER

NEW YORK (AP)—In the first moments of "Diagnosis: Unknown" it became clear that the mystery was off to a bad start.

The victim, an artist's model, is strangled. The audience sees only her hands and lower part of the body. The hands claw at the bed clothes. If the victim had acted like any normal person being suffocated, those hands would have been busy pushing off the murderer. And his face might have well borne scratch marks. As Sherlock Holmes would say, "Elementary, my dear Watson."

But then there would have been no contrived story to occupy one hour of the time CBS regularly allots to Garry Moore. (10 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time Tuesday).

Instead of a sleuth with a pistol, "Diagnosis: Unknown" features a central character who is a pathologist named Dr. Coffee. His hep talk and beard peg him as a graduate beatnik. Naturally, he has a lab technician who is very pretty and just as jivey. In fact, there is no end to jiveyness in this bunch, considering that the other two lab regulars are a teenage test tube washer and a man from India (who is hep with Far East flavor). The law is represented by a police lieutenant who also digs far out talk.

The murder was about as mystifying as a cup of custard.

The gimmick here was evidence of radioactivity. Where did it all come from? From wine that was grown in a vineyard where radioactive waste settled.

Dr. Coffee deduced that the victim shared the hot wine with her murderer. With the police lieutenant's aid, the four prime suspects were assembled and each licked a microscope slide.

Each slide was put to the Geiger test and ping! one registered radioactivity. It belonged to the fat little delicatessen owner, who loved but was unloved by the artist's model. After a poetic soliloquy—which shows he was a thinking man among the pastrami set—he upped and said he did it. Huzzah, another victory for the laboratory!

An Expensive Swim

ENCINO, Calif. (AP)—Two German girls took a dip in a motel swimming pool Thursday—without getting out of their car.

Karin Burkard, 20, and her sister, Sabine, 16, were unhurt. Karin, who was driving said she thought she lost control of the car.

Police, firemen, a tow truck driver and the motel owner — faced with the problem of removing the car—agreed.

Staley Acquitted Of Delivering Betting Cards

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Roy Staley, 69, won acquittal on a gambling charge Thursday after two witnesses denied they saw him delivering football betting cards.

Staley elected to forego a jury trial on the misdemeanor charge and he was dismissed by Circuit Judge Woodson Oldham when Roy Coyne, defense attorney, moved for acquittal on completion of the state's case.

Judge Oldham directed the Jasper County prosecuting attorney to check the testimony of the two state witnesses, Ray Bishop and J. L. Treadway, against testimony they gave before a grand jury to determine if they should be charged with perjury. They were the only state witnesses.

Treadway, owner of a Joplin billiard parlor, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff. Bishop testified he leased the billiard parlor from Treadway. Staley was accused of delivering football parlay cards to the parlor Sept. 19, 1959.

Staley still faces another charge brought by the grand jury—operating a gambling device and conspiring with three other men to operate crap tables. Accused along with Staley is Verne Wilder, Joplin restaurant owner. The bombing of Wilder's office, located in an annex of the restaurant, touched off the grand jury investigation.

Soldiers' Rebellion Is Ended

White Women Say Mutineers Raped Them

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (AP) — Mutinous Negro soldiers Thursday ended a two day army revolt marked by charges of white women they had been raped by mutineers.

A railroad official said women brought here on a special train from Kisantu, between the capital and Thysville, told him they had been raped by Congolese soldiers who invaded their homes looking for weapons.

At one point in the uprising in this week-old African nation, white residents of Leopoldville patrolled the road leading from the mutineers' camp because of reports the disaffected army men were marching on the capital.

A government spokesman said the mutinous soldiers held the road between Leopoldville and Thysville Wednesday and turned back a group of officials on their way to Thysville.

Tanks sent from Leopoldville, in turn, forced back a detachment of the mutineers heading for the capital.

Uncertainty verging on panic has seized many Europeans in Leopoldville, the Belgian radio in Brussels reported Thursday night.

It said groups of Portuguese and Belgians in the new Congo republic were preparing to cross the Angola border Thursday night to take refuge in that Portuguese colony and others were thinking of seeking safety across the River Congo in Brazzaville, capital of the former French Congo, now also a republic.

Information Minister Anicet Kashamura confirmed the army mutineers at Thysville, about 75 miles southwest of Leopoldville, had restored to command the white Belgian officers they had held in confinement. In Leopoldville, most mutineers returned to barracks.

Much of the credit for settling the mutiny was given to Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba and President Joseph Kasavubu, who flew to Thysville to address the insurgents. Agreement to surrender and release Belgian officers was reached at these meetings.

With the collapse of the revolt, the two centers of resistance—Leopoldville and Thysville—returned to shaky normality. The tension, while not entirely dissipated, had eased greatly.

A factor in the return of comparative calm to the capital was settlement of a 10-day strike of some 10,000 dock and railway warehouse workers whose walk-out had tied up incoming supplies.

The 25,000-man Negro army revolted to enforce demands for more pay and replacement of white Belgian officers by Congolese.

Charles Mergen Is Victim

Former Sedalian Drowns at Warsaw

A 24-year-old Kansas City man, formerly of Sedalia, apparently suffered an epileptic attack Wednesday afternoon, fell off a dock where he was fishing and drowned. The victim was Charles Ray Mergen. The accident took place at the Red Bud Camp, nine miles west of Warsaw, on the Lake of the Ozarks.

Benton County Sheriff Benny Jenkins was notified that Mergen, 4904 College Ave., was missing Thursday morning. Mergen had last been seen on the dock Wednesday.

Jenkins went to the scene equipped with drag lines, but the body had been brought to the surface at 12:30 p.m. by Billy Henderson, Duke Ponder and Jack Cornelius, who first reported to the deputy.

The three men managed to bring up the body with fishing equipment belonging to Mergen. Additional weights had been placed on the fishing line, and the hook caught Mergen's clothing.

Dr. James A. Logan, Marshall, viewed the body in the absence of the Benton County coroner, who is in Chicago. The Reser Funeral Home reported Thursday night that no inquest would be held.

Deputy Jenkins reported that Mergen had suffered from epilepsy for some time, and that he spent a great deal of time at the camp. He said Mergen once stayed there for two years.

The body was brought to the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel by the Reser ambulance. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at McLaughlin's with burial in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mergen was born Oct. 15, 1935, in Sedalia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mergen, Kansas City. He was not married.

Surviving besides his father and mother are one brother, Edward Mergen, St. Louis; and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Watts, Kansas City.

Mergen lived in Sedalia until eight years ago when he moved to Kansas City where he has lived since. His address while living in Sedalia was 1000 East 13th.

Couts Quits As Assistant Police Chief

Jack Couts, 2026 East Sixth, assistant police chief, Thursday resigned from the police department because of what he termed "circumstances of insecurity" in the department.

The resignation becomes effective Monday, July 11.

Couts, recently defeated in his bid for chief of police, has been a member of the police department for four and one-half years. He was assistant chief two years.

Couts said he harbors no ill feelings toward the force and its men. He said, in a separate letter to the department, as a whole that in his opinion it was a "good department, staffed by good, sincere and hard-working men."

However, he said, he could not work under conditions which prevail there. He said a man did not know from one day to the next whether he still held his job. When asked if he would seek the police chief's post in the 1962 election, Couts said he would not.

Couts bought a third interest in Kenny's Cafe, East Fifth Street, and said he hoped to make his business good enough to stay there.

There are several rumors circulating in and about city hall as to Couts' successor, but Chief Hamlin said late Wednesday night that no man has been picked to take the assistant's post.

At the present time, Sgt. Jim Clifford has taken the responsibility.

Castro Calls for Support In Protesting Quota Cuts

Mexico Sides With Cuba Against U.S.

Official Cheered As He Explains Stand to Congress

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A high spokesman for Mexico's dominant political party declared Thursday Mexico stands with the Cuban people in the growing conflict between the Castro government and the United States.

Emilio Sanchez Piedras, chairman of the permanent commission of Congress, drew enthusiastic cheers in a speech before senators and deputies at an extraordinary congressional meeting called to explain the policies of the government of President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

Saying he was speaking for the Party of the Revolutionary Institutions—PRI—which has an overwhelming majority in Congress, Sanchez Piedras chose his words carefully. He made no direct reference to Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

"In this critical moment for the sister Republic of Cuba," he said, "when it appears that our northern neighbor is closing the doors of its friendship and understanding in the face of the yearnings of the Cuban people to live in liberty and economic independence, we, the representatives of the people of Mexico, repeat to the Cuban people our same attitude of solidarity and we wish to tell them that we are certain that their right to live in social justice and economic liberty will have to prevail in this continent in the hope of peace and reciprocal friendship."

Sources close to the President said they doubted that Lopez Mateos would have any statement to make on Sanchez Piedras' remarks. They felt the declaration represented only the view of a spokesman for the legislative branch and did not commit the government.

Even though Congress is dominated by the official party, it was pointed out that under the Mexican constitution the country's foreign policy is in the hands of the executive.

The official party, the PRI, of which Sanchez Piedras is the spokesman in Congress, not only elects the president of the country but normally is responsive to his policies once he is in office.

While the party spokesman limited his words to an expression of solidarity for the Cuban people without referring directly to Castro, it seemed certain to provoke concern, perhaps even alarm, on the part of the U.S. government.

It was considered likely the U.S. Embassy would ask the Foreign Ministry to what extent the deputy's declaration reflects the official policy of the government.

Mexico was the birthplace of Castro's Cuban revolution against the Batista regime — the place whence he sailed to the eastern Cuban mountain area in 1956 with his small band — and the recent site for formation of the most influential Cuban anti-Castro movement thus far. Mexico City has many anti-Castro Cuban exiles.

For Pettis County

Increase In Cattle Valuation Ordered

The Missouri State Tax Commission today ordered county clerk Jim Green to increase the assessed valuation of all neat cattle in Pettis County by five per cent.

The order, entered in Jefferson City July 6, was received at the office of the Pettis County Clerk Thursday morning. The order is effective immediately. Other evaluations as submitted by the office of the Pettis County Tax Assessor, remained the same as submitted.

County Assessor Jerry Trotter said he had assessed all neat cattle at an average of $33 per head, but the State Tax Commission, apparently unsatisfied with the evaluation, increased the average evaluation to about $36 per head.

In explaining that he does not see why the commission took action to increase the overall evaluation, Trotter said, "I think this is the most unfair thing that ever happened to the farmers of Pettis County."

This will bring an increased work load to the office of the county clerk, which has already started work on the 1960 tax statements. The statements will have to be made over, with the five per cent increase added in.

The commission ordered the increase in its report of valuation changes which lists the total valuation of Pettis County cattle at $1,444,159, for 1960. The five per cent increase adds up to $72,207.95 and a total new valuation of a little more than $1½-million.

The Pettis County Board of Equalization is scheduled to meet in the County Courtroom July 11.

Delays Threat To Seize More US Property

Cuba Reportedly Has Turned to US For Corn Supplies

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro rallied his supporters Thursday for a continuing battle against what he called the insane and stupid action of President Eisenhower in slicing Cuba's sugar quota.

He delayed, at least for the time being, his threat to seize all property of U.S. holders "down to the nails in their soles."

It was disclosed that Cuba had turned to the United States this week for needed supplies of corn for its poultry industry and for rice to bolster its food supply.

In his first public statement after the Eisenhower action, Castro limited himself to harsh words about Washington, and boasted that Cuba, with the people and right on its side, is "really stronger than the oligarchy of the United States."

He announced he will make another television speech Friday night and appear Sunday before a mass meeting of his Confederation of Cuban Workers expected to draw a million and a half of his faithful. The appearances are expected to be climaxed by some new move against American property, probably Sunday.

There was a new flood of applicants for Visas at the U.S. Embassy after Castro's bitter speech as more Cubans sought to leave this strife-torn nation for asylum in the United States.

Brazil, the Philippines, Mexico and Peru were among countries mentioned as possible markets where the United States might now buy sugar.

But despite the bitter attacks Cuba has turned to the United States twice this week for emergency help to meet a grave crop shortage, it was disclosed Thursday.

A few months ago Castro predicted Cuba would have corn to export, thanks to his agrarian reform program. But when Cuban officials discovered they had less than 10 days of poultry feed on hand they rushed through an emergency order for 150,000 bags of corn from the United States. The rush order was followed up Wednesday by another plea for 100,000 bags of corn for Cuba's chicken and egg industry. New Orleans was reported the shipping point.

Informants said Cuba turned to the United States after it found Argentina couldn't deliver in a hurry and Yugoslavia's price was too high.

On another food front Cuba has just signed orders for 800,000 bags of American rice—the full first-quarter allocation of 3,200,000 bags of "low-duty rice" this country must import annually for the food year starting July 1.

Agricultural experts said the rice purchases followed collapse of Cuba's own rice harvest with a yield "most disappointing." They predicted the later harvest of Honduran varieties of rice would be 30 to 50 per cent below normal.

Trampoline Center Is Approved by City

The City Council committee investigating the legality of the Trampoline Center located on Liberty Park Blvd., held a special meeting Wednesday night at the center and approved the operation in its present location.

A city license had not been issued the center and the investigating committee was appointed Tuesday at the regular meeting of the City Council. The committee determined that a license was not issued the center due to the fact that license fees are based on income, and average income figures for such a center were not available.

The center will operate for 30 days under the committee ruling to determine an average income figure so that a city license can be issued.

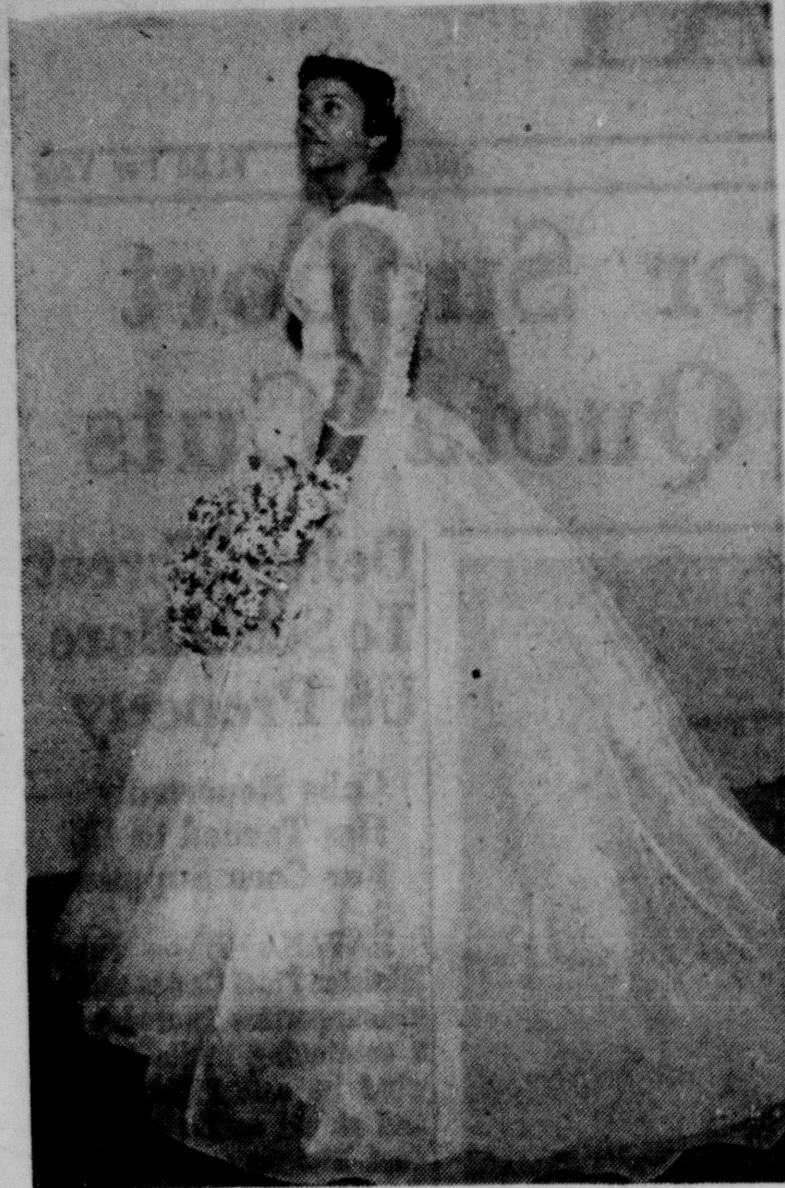

The committee was composed of L. W. Dickmann, Police Chief, Ralph Hamlin and Willard Morris.

Sizzling Sixties Aren't Quite Sizzlin'

By WILLIAM FERRIS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"We can't have a boom every year."

W. L. Burns Jr., a banker in Durham, N.C., sums up his sentiment on business at mid-year in this one sentence. It pretty well defines the economic situation everywhere.

At mid-1960 business generally is holding steady, disappointing some but satisfying others, a nationwide survey by The Associated Press discloses.

Many businessmen think the second half of 1960 will produce a rousing rally. A few economists believe a letdown is possible.

One thing's certain: Business is not as good as economists and businessmen enthusiastically forecast it would be six months ago.

A spokesman for Detroit's big J. L. Hudson department store says, "The 'Sizzling Sixties' are not sizzling as well as expected."

The store's business is above a year ago, but it has revised downward its third-quarter sales estimate.

In New Orleans Isidore Newman, president of the Maison Blanche, says the bottom dropped out of sales in May. He adds:

"It's the worst slump I've ever seen in New Orleans. I expect business to improve, but I don't look for a boom year."

But Reeve Wetherill of John Wanamaker's in Philadelphia says "our business in the first six months was better than we anticipated and we look for continuance of same."

Where sales disappointed, the weather got much blame. Spring was late, cold and wet.

Yet weather which hurts one section of the economy can help others. Vermont's extended winter produced a record ski season and a more valuable maple sugar crop. Snow came at the right time for the Winter Olympics and helped Reno, Nev., retail trade.

Yet there are weak spots. A big one is steel. After operating at near capacity early this year, about 40 per cent of the industry is now shut down. Roger Blough, chairman of U.S. Steel, says the industry currently may have excess capacity of about 25 per cent.

This hurts the big industrial areas in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Alabama. Layoffs speckle the bright prosperity picture. Unemployment nationally runs around five per cent of the labor force. Older people, once released, tend to remain unemployed.

Another weak spot is appliances. A St. Louis appliance dealer complains "there is just nothing new and different in appliances."

Still another weak spot is housing. Private housing starts run at an annual rate of 1,254,000 units compared with 1,613,000 a year ago. Weather gets some blame for the decline. "Tight money" gets more.

Auto production and sales are outstanding. For the first six months production amounts to around 3,824,363 units compared with 3,266,851 last year. In the record year, 1955, the half year total was 4,257,150.

Leisure time activities reap a harvest. Bowling sports and domestic producers of automatic pin setting machines move into foreign lands. The boating industry looks forward to a lush summer. More people attend so-called "adult movies."

The forgotten topic is inflation. Few mention it. Robert Ween, dean of business at the University of Nevada, says, "Inflation is under control but there might be a slight recession coming."

The business research station of the Mississippi State University reaches a conclusion which could apply in most states:

"The general attitude over the state of Mississippi is this: 'Business is fair, and we are not complaining, but we could certainly stand a little more business than we are getting.'"

Teenagers Don't Regard Themselves As Angelic

SOME LEISURE is fine but too much leisure, teenagers admit, can affect their studies.

By Eugene Gilbert
President of the Gilbert Youth Research Co.

When it comes to class-room behavior, teen-agers don't regard themselves as teacher's pets.

This is pretty much in line with what the teachers themselves recently told us about it. But the young people are a little tougher on themselves. Of the 955 young people we polled, a small majority (52 per cent) of large city students and 57 per cent of small town school goers agree that students aren't as well behaved as they used to be.

The teachers were a bit more lenient in their appraisal of behavior, tallying 50-50 on the issue.

But in spite of laxer discipline (which the young folks don't always like), the pressures of modern living and gripes about "know-it-all" teachers—our teenagers feel they are as happy as high school students ever were.

Where there is discontent, we found that boys especially feel there is too much emphasis on the importance of good grades and school success. Many teenagers also told us they feel a sense of strain from their social life.

A number of young people complained of too much leisure time.

We found some interesting variations between boys and girls in big cities and small towns. Of those polled 36 per cent attend large city schools; 34 per cent, small city schools; 22 per cent, small town schools and 8 per cent, consolidated schools.

In small towns, 55 per cent of the boys but only 35 per cent of the girls say students are as well behaved as ever. Big city boys and girls are in closer agreement, with 58 per cent of the boys and 56 per cent of the girls saying discipline isn't all it should be.

Students aren't as well behaved as formerly as Sandra Lee Goodwin, 16, of Hartford, Conn., who says, "I think they have more freedom, consequently they are wilder."

On the other side of the fence is Bernette de Boer, 16, of Le Mars, Iowa, who says, "People are just making a bigger issue of those who are bad."

Most of the young people blame poor behavior on laxer discipline at home. Jean Manley, 17, of St. Paul, Minn., says, "Students feel no real need of behaving because no one insists that they do."

The second most mentioned cause of misbehavior—especially by small town girls—was inadequate teachers who failed to impose firm discipline.

Big city students said the spirit of the times was the second biggest cause of behavior problems. Under this heading they mentioned lack of instruction in good manners at home and school and permitting girls to go out without chaperones.

"If your parents aren't going to teach you how to act, who is?" asks Stanley Kwietniowski, 15, of Windsor Forks, Conn.

Kathleen Daniels, 17, of St. Paul, Minn., offered this explanation: "Parents have their own interests as well as the children and often they don't coincide."

Both students and teachers were in accord on whether high school students are as happy now as they once were. The answer: generally, yes.

Nuptials Of Patsy Gillispie, Elwood Schlobohm Are Performed

Large baskets of white gladioli, pink and blue majestic daisies on either side of the altar, flanked by candelabra, provided the setting for the wedding of Miss Patsy Lou Gillispie and Mr. Elwood Schlobohm at half past two o'clock in the afternoon Sunday, June 12, at the Lake Creek Methodist Church, Smithton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillispie, Smithton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schlobohm, Smithton.

The vows of the double ring ceremony were read by the Rev. Linus Eaker.

Sister Vance, Sedalia, accompanied Miss Anita Kelly and Mr. Harvey Martin, both of Sedalia, who sang, "Oh Promise Me" and "Because."

The candles were lighted by Miss Norma Jean Gillispie and Mrs. Helen Gillispie.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of frost white Chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with long tapering sleeves and a wide scoop neckline which was outlined with scallops. Iridescent sequins and pearls were used to border the neckline. The bouffant skirt was formed of alternating tiers of lace and tulle and featured a short apron of lace which was cut to form deep points at the front. Her headdress was a double crown of matching lace which was outlined with pearls and accented with sequins. It held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Fuji mums.

Alaskan Beauty Gives Travelogue

Says Stories About Whale Meat, Bear's Liver Are True

By HUGH MULLIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Eskimo actress Dorcas Brower says it's true what they say about whale meat, polar bear's liver and rubbing noses in the land of the midnight sun.

Over a dish of crushed Hawaiian pineapple, the Alaskan beauty, soon to be seen in the movie version of Edna Ferber's "Ice Palace," delivered a miniature travelogue on the delights of her frozen homeland.

Whale meat is very delicious, quite sweet and very good for the figure, because it has a low fat content.

"But you must never eat polar bear's liver, otherwise you will lose your hair and maybe your teeth. Perhaps the hair will come back, but it will be snow white."

"It's true that Eskimo lovers kiss by rubbing noses, but in the picture I don't get to kiss Robert Ryan. He plays my husband."

Rubbing noses was quite the thing at Sheldon S. Jackson Junior College in Sitka, where Dorcas was a campus beauty queen before moving on to the University of Alaska to study anthropology.

"They passed some sort of regulation about rubbing noses being undignified on campus," Dorcas recalls. "It was quite a problem. About 10 per cent of the student body were Eskimos."

Dorcas has lovely almond skin, dancing black eyes and, under her parka, a figure that would make any Eskimo flip his kayak. She was born at Half Moon Three, just outside Point Barrow where her father had a reindeer ranch.

Prior to being discovered by Hollywood scouts on the University of Alaska campus, the biggest event in her life was Point Barrow's week-long celebration of Alaska statehood.

"There were fireworks, bands, speeches, bombing of icebergs and everything," she vividly recalls. "That's right, bombing icebergs. They blast them out of the water with dynamite."

Pastor Rides With Sheriff On His Calls

By RUTH WOELLMER
Reporter Flint Journal

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — That passenger you're apt to see now and then riding in a Genesee County sheriff's car is not a habitual criminal.

He is the Rev. Carl Hatch, associate pastor of the Flint Baptist Temple, answering the police calls with his friend, Deputy Sheriff George W. Boulter.

The Rev. Mr. Hatch has brought many persons into church as a direct result of the spot calls he has made on scenes of drunkenness, larceny and family squabbles.

"I don't try to push my religion," he says.

But of the 240 young people enrolled in Sunday School classes, he says, some 75 to 100 were reached first on the police beat. Many have seen the seamy side of life," said the Rev. Mr. Hatch.

Three youths arrested for car larceny were urged by the Boulter-Hatch team to attend church. All three now show up regularly for services and one is thinking of studying for the ministry.

About half of the 15 young people planning to enter the ministry have had dealings with the police, says the young pastor.

The Flint Baptist Temple has 1,100 members and adult Sunday School regulars. Hundreds have been added to the list as a result of the sheriff-pastor setup.

"But we're not out to fill our church pews," insists the Rev. Mr. Hatch. "We're trying to keep the people out of jail."

One regular churchgoer is a recovered alcoholic who hit the bottle for 25 years before he received counselling from the minister.

Another case concerned a young couple whose domestic troubles brought police cars to their home about twice a week. The deputy sheriff and minister suggested religion might bring harmony into their home.

Not all the case histories have had happy endings.

One man picked up on the police beat came to church for a while but today he's in prison.

Another man turned his back on the minister's counsel and was won over five weeks later when the Rev. Mr. Hatch appeared in the squad car at the scene of an accident involving his child.

Sometimes it takes a catastrophe to win them over," adds the Rev. Mr. Hatch.

Red Hints Russia Set To Discontinue Talks

GENEVA (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin hinted today that the Soviet Union is ready to break off the 10-nation disarmament conference unless the Western powers agree to negotiate on the basis of the new Soviet plan for total disarmament.

Zorin's speech was part of a steadily mounting Communist buildup apparently intended to justify a break in the talks, at least until after a new administration takes office in Washington.

Zorin was less vitriolic than his colleague from Czechoslovakia, Jiri Nosek, who earlier accused the United States of obstructing disarmament to conceal its own preparations for war.

The Soviet delegate charged that the United States deliberately sabotaged last month's Paris summit meeting and is not interested in any serious negotiation of a disarmament treaty.

Shirley Is Surely Confusing

MEMPHIS (AP) — All is confusion in the Shirley O. Sisk residence when the telephone caller asks to speak with "Shirley."

And a letter addressed simply to "Shirley Sisk" is just as baffling.

Sisk's wife also is named Shirley. So is their 13-year-old daughter.

ditional music throughout the ceremony. Soloists were Miss Betty Barnett, and Mr. Larry Grimes. Mr. Grimes sang, "O Promise Me" and a selection from Corinthians 1:13. Miss Barnett sang, "The Wedding" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Attired the same as the bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Bethany, and Miss Kay Carter, Tipton, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony. Their wrist corsages were of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chapel length gown of nylon organza embroidered with satin in a rose design covering the fitted bodice and the short cap sleeves, continuing down the back to a point ending midway down the length of the skirt. The gown featured a large bow at the back of the waist. Her opened crowned hat of lace, pearls and a tiny bow secured her full length veil of silk illusion. She carried an orchid corsage with long white streamers on a small white ribbon.

Miss Janice Worley, St. Joseph, served as maid of honor. Her dress of blue silk organza over taffeta had a fitted bodice with a full gathered skirt and matching cummerbund and bolero. Her hat had a pearl crown with a circular brim of blue nylon net. The mitts were of white nylon organza edged in seed pearls.

Wearing ice blue dresses styled identical to the maid of honor, the junior bridesmaids were Miss Carla Kay Wehmeir, sister of the bride, Miss Cheryl Grimes, St. Joseph, Miss Pamela Embry, Tipton, and Miss Sandra Bershaw, Seattle, Wash., all cousins of the bride. Their bouquets were pink carnations and sweetheart roses fashioned on a heart shaped frame of tulle and leaves.

The groom's attendants were Mr. Jack Morris, best man, Mr. Don Claas, Mr. Marvin Mertes, Mr. Alphonse Hainen and Mr. Larry Grimes.

Miss Barbara Long, niece of the groom, was flower girl and Master Kenneth Long, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother chose a dress of blue silk organza with matching lace bodice and accessories. Both wore a corsage of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.
